

What we hope the state and counties keep in mind

Transformation: trans-for-ma-tion (noun)

1. complete change – a complete change, usually into something with an improved appearance or usefulness

Transform: trans-form (verb)

1. change something dramatically, to change people or things completely, especially improving their appearance or usefulness

2. undergo a total complete change for the better

Transformation is a deep, ongoing process along a continuum of innovation.

Transformation implies profound change, not at the margins of a system, but at its very core. In transformation, new sources of power emerge. New competencies develop. When transformation work is done, we look for what we can do now that we could not do before.
